Administrative Professionals’ Appreciated
With Breakfast at the President’s Home

Campus Administrative professionals’ (CAPS) members gathered for the annual Administrative Professionals’ Breakfast at the President’s home on April 24th, 2013. Dr. and Mrs. Savoie joined in celebrating the vital role of administrative professionals throughout the University. The Academic Success Center director, Bette Harris, extended her gratitude by saying: “Today is all about you! Because let’s face it, you’ve earned it!”

CAPS members would like to congratulate Dr. Carolyn Bruder on her upcoming retirement. We would like to extend our gratitude to her for everything that she has done for our students, our faculty and our staff. We wish you all the best. We hope that you know that you will be missed tremendously.

“The deepest principle in human nature is the craving to be appreciated.” William James
